LEADING INTERNET FIRM RECEIVES REGIONAL AWARD

Toledo, Ohio, November 22, 2002 – LeagueBoss.com™ receives the prestigious 2002 ITANO Most Promising New Company Award.

In a special ceremony of the Third Toledo Technology Summit held at the Toledo Museum of Art, LeagueBoss.com™ a Perrysburg, Ohio based company, collected one of 4 awards given by the Information Technology Alliance of North West Ohio (ITANO). The event was attended by numerous top corporate and government leaders of North West Ohio. The award, in the category of Technology, was for the "Most Promising New Business." This award was presented by Toledo, Ohio Mayor, Jack Ford and ITANO President & Chairman of Board, Dan Sadosky.

"We are honored and gratified that our company was recognized," states John Gordon, President and CEO of LeagueBoss.com™. LeagueBoss.com™ creates personalized, interactive, secure software products that run on the Internet to track golf leagues, outings, individuals, teams and USGA clubs. LeagueBoss.com™ is the most feature-rich, web-based league administration tool in its market. The software is designed for golf courses and league administrators who are looking for a better way to easily administer and communicate information with all league members.

With LeagueBoss.com™ golf courses can create new leagues by using standardized league formats. The program also provides access to information such as courses, teams, schedules, players, subs, scores, handicaps, statistics, performance and games for everyone involved in any golfing event.

(More)

Unlike PC and other web-based products targeted to league administrators, LeagueBoss.com™ offers the opportunity for golf courses to increase revenue and improve customer service by providing this tool to league members. LeagueBoss.com™ creates an avenue for courses to communicate with all league members through their weekly results web site and automated email. Anyone who's ever managed a league or has tried to arrange golf outings or tournaments knows how complicated it can become. "It can take many hours a week," says Gordon, "I estimate LeagueBoss.com™ can cut the time administrators and statisticians spend doing paperwork and making phone calls by 70 percent." Notice the accolades received by LeagueBoss.com's™ current users on their website at <http://www.leagueboss.com>.

LeagueBoss.com™ now has 2,220 golfers, 65 leagues, and 35 golf courses in 13 states. Forty-eight of those leagues are in Ohio and Michigan. Projections for 2003 include 24,000 golfers, 1000 leagues, and 150 golf courses in 25 states. LeagueBoss.com™ is currently looking for additional investment capital and strategic partnerships. If you are interested in investment opportunities with this "Promising New Business," contact John Gordon at jgordon@leagueboss.com.
